1. Sriwijaya International Cultural Night (SICN)

Universitas Sriwijaya (Unsri) held the 2018 Cultural Night event which featured a number of Unsri students from 9 countries participating in the Sriwijaya International Cultural Night (SICN). The event, themed "Cultural Diversity For Unity," took place at the Multipurpose Building of the Unsri Postgraduate Program in Palembang, on Saturday (12/8/2018).

The Head of the Cooperation Unit and International Services Office of Unsri, Eriyansyah SPd MA PhD, revealed that the 2018 cultural night is an annual event organized by the Cooperation Unit and the International Services Office of Unsri, which presents foreign students from 9 countries, namely Japan, Thailand, Vietnam, Solomon Islands, South Korea, Papua New Guinea, Pakistan, Colombia, and Indonesia. These foreign students will perform stage acts consisting of arts, dances, and songs.

The event, officially opened by the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs, Dr. dr. M Zulkarnain, was lively. In addition to the stage performance of the Gending Sriwijaya dance as the opening act, the event continued with a fashion show and introduction of foreign students in their respective cultural costumes, as well as presentations from the countries participating in the SICN. Meanwhile, the award for best performance was given to a student from South Korea. The event was also attended by Deans, Vice Deans, Department Heads, representatives from various organizations at Unsri, and guests who were enthusiastic about the various activities presented in this SICN.

The Head of the Indonesian Language Education Laboratory at Universitas Sriwijaya, Dr. Rita Inderawati, M.Pd., in her effort to introduce and utilize the Mini Theater of the Indonesian Language Education Laboratory, FKIP of Universitas Sriwijaya, held a traditional acting/theater workshop on Thursday (16/12/2021) with a speaker from Jakarta, Dr. Syaiful Amri, who is the Advisor of the Betawi Comedy Foundation, attended by students, alumni, and the general public from various backgrounds online and by a limited number of participants in person. The speaker's presence in the city of Palembang was to serve as a speaker at the national seminar on language, literature, and culture initiated by the Indonesian Literature Scholars Association (HISKI) South Sumatra Commission, chaired by Prof. Nurhayati, a lecturer in Indonesian Language Education at FKIP Unsri, and to play the role of Dulmuluk in the Dulmuluk Performance, which is also an event of the literature scholars association and directed by the HISKI chairperson.

The arrival of the Dulmuluk actor from Betawi to Palembang was warmly welcomed by the Head of the Mini Theater Lab, who also took on the role of a merchant in the Berbari kingdom in the Dulmuluk play, to share knowledge with lecturers, students, and teachers online in the lab. The drama practice for the Dulmuluk Performance was conducted online, followed by 11 provinces representing the traditional art performers of Palembang.
