Gender Equality

5.6 Women's progress measures

5.6.1 Indicator:

Policy of non-discrimination against women

The Rector of Universitas Sriwijaya, Prof. Anis Saggaff, emphasizes the university's strong commitment to promoting gender equity within its educational framework. In an era where gender disparities persist in various spheres of life, Universitas Sriwijaya stands as an inspiration to others. Prof. Anis firmly stated that the educational institution actively supports gender equality, fostering an environment where there is no distinction or division between male and female students or faculty members. The university's dedication to breaking down traditional barriers is evident in its policies and practices, ensuring that opportunities are equally accessible to everyone, regardless of their gender. According to Prof. Anis, Universitas Sriwijaya operates on a principle of inclusivity, where both female and male individuals are afforded the same open opportunities in their academic pursuits and professional roles. This commitment not only empowers female students and faculty members but also encourages a diverse and collaborative learning atmosphere.
